This will be my final newsletter as I am resigning my role as coordinator for disabilities ministries for the Diocese of Tyler as of July 30. For the last four years we have worked together to build up this program Bridging the Gap: Faith Formation for Special Needs. It is my hope and prayer that the diocese will continue to provide resources and support for this important ministry for these precious individuals. God bless each of you for your presence, prayers, and support for these beautiful individuals.
